

Valued Social Roles Tour

Learn about the kind of lifestyles and valued roles that are possible when supports are custom-designed!

Tuesday, Sept 1 or Nov 10, 2009

9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Schedule for the Day

- | | |
|--------------|--|
| 9:30 a.m. | Sign-in, coffee and muffins |
| 10:00 a.m. | Introduction to customized, consumer-directed supports |
| 11:30 a.m. | Boxed lunch |
| 12 – 4:30 pm | Visit with four people who are directing their own services through Realizations in their own homes in the Louisville area |

Join us for this tour and hear about an approach to designing services that increases the likelihood that people with disabilities (including those who live with significant disabilities) will be satisfied and have opportunities to be active and contributing members of the community. Visit with the people who are living in their own home, working, making contributions to society, and building new personal relationships to understand their perspective. Find out what it takes to imagine, create and sustain supports that are custom-designed. Explore the unique partnership between people using support and the agency assisting them.

The cost of the tour is $25 per person. Sponsorship is available for people with disabilities and their family if needed. To register, complete the attached registration form and forward as instructed on the form. Registration for the September 1 tour is Friday, August 28; the deadline for the November 10 tour is November 3. Register early as space is limited and the tours typically fill up quickly!

The tour will begin and end at the office of Realizations – 410 W. Chestnut St., Louisville, KY 40202.
